

I have the first card!

The cause is:
It was a very hot summer day, and my mom had to go to work.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We went to our aunt's house to go swimming.

The cause is:
I chose not to wear sunscreen at the pool.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
I got a sunburn.

The cause is:
We were very thirsty after our swim.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My aunt made us lemonade.

The cause is:
Our hands were wet and slippery.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My sister dropped her cup and spilled her lemonade all over the patio.

The cause is:
My sister dropped her cup and spilled her lemonade all over the patio.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We got paper towels and cleaning spray and cleaned up the spill.

The cause is:
We were very hungry.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We helped our aunt make grilled cheese sandwiches for lunch.

The cause is:
We dirtied some plates
during lunch.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We washed our own dishes after our meal.

The cause is:
We were still wet from the pool, but we wanted to play a game inside.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We changed into dry
clothes.

The cause is:
My sister and I couldn't agree on which game to play.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We played rock-paper-scissors to decide which game to play.

The cause is:
My sister won rock-paper-scissors.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We played the game she wanted to play, which was Candy Land.

The cause is:
I pulled better cards than my sister, and got to skip all the way to the end of the board.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
I won the game!

The cause is:
I won the game!

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My sister was disappointed.

The cause is:
My sister was disappointed.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
I cheered her up by letting her choose which movie to watch.

The cause is:
She chose Moana.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
I was disappointed,
because we have already seen Moana many times.

The cause is:
We don't know how to operate our aunt's TV.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We had to ask our aunt for help turning on the movie.

The cause is:
My aunt's house is always cold because she has air conditioning.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We asked our aunt for blankets on the couch.

The cause is:
My sister and I were both very tired from a day of swimming.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We both fell asleep on the couch during the movie.

The cause is:
It was 5 o'clock and my mom was done with her work.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My mom was able to come pick us up.

The cause is:
We were peacefully
asleep on the couch.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My mom decided not to wake us up.

The cause is:
My mom and aunt wanted
to talk, but they didn't want to wake us up.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
They sat on the patio and talked.

The cause is:
We woke up and heard our mom's voice outside.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
We went outside to see her.

The cause is:
We were hungry for dinner.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
My mom took us home
where she made us roasted chicken, rice, and veggies.

The cause is:
We ate all of our healthy
dinner.

What might be the effect?

I have the effect:
Mom let us have a scoop of ice cream.

This is the last card!