

Name: _____

Date: _____

Show Me the Evidence!

Highlight or underline the evidence in the story that gives you clues about the character trait mentioned below the text.

Grace went over to her grandmother's house for dinner one evening. Her grandmother made her delicious spaghetti and meatballs. Grace ate her entire plate of food, and even had seconds. After dinner, Grace cleared the table without being asked. She rinsed all of the dishes and placed them in the sink. Then, she and her grandma sat on the couch and watched Jeopardy together.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Grace is thoughtful.

On his baseball team, Frank is the best pitcher. His coach always has Frank be the starting pitcher when they play games. Frank's friend, Matt, is also on the team. Matt practices pitching every night with his dad, but he is not quite as good as Frank yet. Frank knows Matt really wants to pitch during a game, so Frank decides he is going to ask his coach if Matt can start the next game instead. Frank knows Matt deserves this.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Frank is fair.

Taylor often tells other girls in her class not to play with Victoria. Sometimes, she even says untrue things about Victoria. The other girls in the class do not know why Taylor doesn't want them to play with Victoria, but they usually listen to Taylor anyway.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Taylor is unkind.

Hunter and his sister always want different things for dinner. When Hunter wants chicken and mashed potatoes, his sister wants tacos. Hunter knows his mom is tired of always making two dinners. One night, Hunter noticed his mom seemed overwhelmed. His sister insisted on breakfast for dinner. Even though that's not what Hunter wanted, he decided to give it a try and give his mom a break. He was surprised when it turned out he actually really liked that dinner!

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Hunter is openminded.

Name: _____ (Answer Key)

Date: _____

Show Me the Evidence!

Highlight or underline the evidence in the story that gives you clues about the character trait mentioned below the text.

Grace went over to her grandmother's house for dinner one evening. Her grandmother made her delicious spaghetti and meatballs. Grace ate her entire plate of food, and even had seconds. After dinner, Grace cleared the table without being asked. She rinsed all of the dishes and placed them in the sink. Then, she and her grandma sat on the couch and watched Jeopardy together.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Grace is thoughtful.

On his baseball team, Frank is the best pitcher. His coach always has Frank be the starting pitcher when they play games. Frank's friend, Matt, is also on the team. Matt practices pitching every night with his dad, but he is not quite as good as Frank yet. Frank knows Matt really wants to pitch during a game, so Frank decides he is going to ask his coach if Matt can start the next game instead. Frank knows Matt deserves this.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Frank is fair.

Taylor often tells other girls in her class not to play with Victoria. Sometimes, she even says untrue things about Victoria. The other girls in the class do not know why Taylor doesn't want them to play with Victoria, but they usually listen to Taylor anyway.

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Taylor is unkind.

Hunter and his sister always want different things for dinner. When Hunter wants chicken and mashed potatoes, his sister wants tacos. Hunter knows his mom is tired of always making two dinners. One night, Hunter noticed his mom seemed overwhelmed. His sister insisted on breakfast for dinner. Even though that's not what Hunter wanted, he decided to give it a try and give his mom a break. He was surprised when it turned out he actually really liked that dinner!

Highlight or underline the evidence that shows Hunter is openminded.