

What's the Genre?

There are stories about aliens and advanced technology And there are stories about magic that go beyond reality There are stories about someone's life and some with lots of drama And each story gets classified as certain type of genre

The genre is the kind of story you're reading and usually for that genre, there's a sub-genre underneath it It could be fiction, non-fiction, folklore or fantasy
a fable, a fairy tale, or an auto-biography

What's the genre?

If it talks about things that could never happen in real life then "fantasy fiction" is how it's classified
And if it talks about things that could possibly occur but they never took place then "realistic fiction" is the genre's name
