

PERSONIFICATION

VERSE 1

Most of the time, we can describe things
In the regular way
But sometimes “the wind blew”
Or “the stars shone”
Feels a little bit plain
That’s when we need more
Tricks up our sleeve
So check this out, I’ve got just the thing

CHORUS 1

Personification
Is a tool writers use
Where they say things that aren’t human
Do things humans do
Like “the wind whispered softly”
“The stars winked in the sky”
When you use it just right
It makes writing come alive

VERSE 2

A regular sentence might say
“We couldn’t wait to play”
But personification says
“The playground called our name”
The playground’s not a person
It can’t really call our names
But if we imagine that it did
We understand the feeling right away

CHORUS 2

Personification
Is a tool writers use
Where they say things that aren’t human
Do things humans do
Like “the car engine coughed”
“The flowers danced in the breeze”
When you use it just right
Your writing’s more fun to read

CHORUS 3

Personification
Is a tool writers use
When they write as if things that aren’t human
Do things humans do
Like “the sun smiled down”
Or “darkness swallowed the room”
When you use it just right
It really helps set the mood
